- 1.1 Invoices for each school term fees including payment terms & conditions will be issued and distributed to parents through -e-mails as per above schedule.
- 1.2 Note: Parents have the option to pay annual fees upfront. Those who prefer this payment schedule should promptly contact the NCBIS Finance department upon receiving the term one invoice to request a revised invoice covering the entire school year. Please note that for payments made in EGP equivalent to GBP amounts, adjustments may be necessary later due to fluctuations in the EGP/GBP exchange rate, which could result in either a credit note or an additional invoice.
- 1.3 It is the responsibility of the parents to contact the finance office if they have not received a bill within the specified timeframe mentioned above. Failure to receive a bill will not be considered a valid reason for not paying term fees, and standard payment conditions, including any applicable early payment discounts, will apply.
- 1.4 In case tuition fees are paid later than the designated payment deadline the school reserves the right to request parents for the next school year(s) for an upfront payment of the tuition fees for the entire year. Such requirements will be communicated in writing to the parents.
- 1.5 If invoices are not paid by the designated deadline, school management will contact parents to communicate the final decision regarding the student's education status at NCBIS. The school reserves the right to withhold attendance until all outstanding invoices are settled in full.
- 1.6 In case due invoices are not paid within payment designated deadline, the school reserves the right to deny your child/children to attend the school until the full invoices have been paid.
- 1.7 Due to the volume of new student applications, limited availability of places and high demand, the school retains the right to allocate the seat of your child/ children to the applicant on the waiting list in case the reservation fees invoice, commitment fees invoice and termly fees invoices have not been paid in full by the payment deadline. Such a decision will be communicated with parents prior to any action.

This allocation will only take place via two written reminders to parents. First one on the payment deadline followed by a 2nd reminder after one week.

- 1.8 These terms will apply with no exceptions to students who are waiting for GCSE results or the ones who decide to leave during the IB courses of A Levels.

2. Commitment Fees

- 2.1 Students applying for IB, and A levels (Current Y11 Students) are required to pay a commitment fee of GBP 2,000. This payment is to reserve a place for the student and to accommodate for the subjects' choices for the next academic year.

- 2.2 The commitment fees will be deducted from term one fee for the next academic year.

- 2.3 The benefit to pay this commitment fee on time to ensure the following:

- Guarantee your child's place for the next academic year.
- Enable the school to accommodate the subjects' choices of your child.
- Benefit from the early payment discount on Term one for the next academic year.

- 2.4 The commitment fee is non-refundable. This applies to all students in Y11 including the ones who are waiting for the GCSE results. It also applies to students who decide to leave and inform the school within the declared deadline.

- 2.5 Current Y11 students are exempt from the GBP 1,000 reservation fees which is due in May. (Reservation fee is replaced by the commitment fee for the current Y11 students)

3. Reservation Fees

- 3.1 Students continuing the following year with NCBIS needs to pay a reservation fees (down payment) for term one for the following academic year equivalent to GBP 1,000.

- 3.2 The Reservation fees will be deducted from the following term one school fees invoice.

- 3.3 If payment is made later than the designated deadline, parent will forfeit the right to claim the early payment discount on term one fees as outlined in clause (4) of this table.

4. Early Payment Discount

- 4.1 An early payment discount of 1.5% on the tuition fees is offered if invoices are fully settled within twenty days of the invoice date.

- 4.2 Early payment discount will not be applied under any circumstances for any payment beyond the early payment discount date.

- 4.3 Early payment discount is only applied in case proof of payment is made before or on the discounted payment deadline regardless of the payment reflection date in the school bank account.

- 4.4 Early payment discount is not eligible for invoices issued after the start of term.

- 4.5 It is the responsibility of the parent to contact the finance office if no invoice has been received within the above-mentioned schedule. Not receiving a copy of the invoice will not waive or extend the payment deadline. Fees and payment conditions will be applied, including the payment discount deadline.

5. Student Withdrawal

Refund on tuition fees in case of withdrawal of the student:

- 5.1 Commitment fees & Reservation Fees are non-refundable. It is excluded from all refunds mentioned in this policy.
- 5.2 Refund of 100% excluding the commitment & reservation fees in case the withdrawal date is prior to the “term invoice payment deadline.”
- 5.3 No refund in case of withdrawal “after the invoice payment deadline”.
- 5.4 Students leaving school must notify NCBIS of their departure before the payment deadline. In case the school is not notified, the school reserves the right to offset the fees of the due term against the refundable deposit.
- 5.5 Verbal notification of withdrawal is not acceptable. Notification should be made in writing to the Admissions Office and Finance Office with a copy to the Head of School (Primary / Secondary). Please note that the tuition fees refund will depend on the date of receipt by the Admissions, Finance Office.

6. Student Dismissal

No refund will be given on registration charge, tuition fees and examination fees and/or bus fees in case of student dismissal from school.

7. Refundable Deposit (non- interest bearing)

- 7.1 This Fee is refundable, and the school will repay the balance of this deposit in EGP only upon final departure of the student, after ensuring that the student account is settled in full.
- 7.2 If the refundable deposit is paid by someone other than the Parent, the deposit shall be refunded to the payer, unless the school receives written authorization from the payer to refund the Parent directly.

8. Partial Fees

8.1 Tuition Fees

- 8.1.1 Under no circumstances will discounts be granted for students who have a reduced timetable or for whom periods of voluntary absence are granted. E.g. In the case of study leave granted to GCSE, IB or A levels students.

8.1.2 Students enrolling after the start of the term will be charged the full-term fees, except if starting after midterm when only half term tuition fees will be charged. The school is unable to calculate fees on a pro-rata basis.

8.2 Bus Fees

8.2.1 For those students using the bus service one way (morning or afternoon) 100% of the termly bus fees will be charged.

8.2.2 No refund on bus fees is given in case students are suspended from bus service.

8.2.3 Under no circumstances will discounts be granted for students who have a reduced timetable or for whom periods of voluntary absence are granted. . E.g. In the case of study leave granted to GCSE, IB or A levels students.

8.2.4 Students enrolling at the start of the term and before midterm will be charged with the full bus term fees, except if starting after midterm when only half term bus fees will be charged. The school is unable to calculate fees on a pro-rata basis.

8.2.5 As the school does not aim to make any profit from the transportation service, an exercise will be conducted at the beginning of each term to ensure that the school is breaking even for the transportation service cost.

8.2.6 Parents request to change from Zone to another Zone.

- School decisions will be based on the bus capacity and availability.
- In case of bus availability, parents will be charged with the current Zone rate during the current term of change.
- Refund of 100% in case the withdrawal date is prior to the “term invoice payment deadline.”
- No refund in case of withdrawal “after the invoice payment deadline”.
- Students leaving school must notify NCBIS of their departure before the payment deadline. In case the school is not notified, the school reserves the right to offset the bus fees of the due term against the refundable deposit.

9. Students leaving NCBIS for a short period wishing to maintain their place on roll

9.1 Absence request to be evaluated on a termly basis upon which academic approval may be granted.

9.2 Full payment of Tuition Fees must be made for the period of absence within the designated deadline.

10. Examination Fees:

- 10.1 Students applying for IB, A Levels & GCSE examinations through the school have to fully settle examination fees before registration.
- 10.2 Students applying for IB, A Levels & GCSE examinations have to fully settle the remaining (Term Two and Three) school fees till the end of the current academic year prior to exam registration.
- 10.3 For those students waiting for IB, A Levels & GCSE results, who might not pay the reservation fees and term one fees for the following academic year till receiving the exam results, are exposed to the loss of their places.

Force majeure

In the event of force majeure, which causes a student or students to withdraw from the school when fees have already been paid, these fees will not be refunded. Force majeure is defined as an event or effect, such as civil disturbances, acts of war and other civil, political or military events, labor unrest, earthquakes, nuclear disaster and extreme weather conditions that cannot be anticipated or controlled and would adversely affect a school's financial condition. This policy is necessary to protect the school's financial interest with a view to continuing operations after the force majeure event has passed.

Changes to School Fees Structure

The levels of fees and other charges, as well as terms and conditions of payment, for students at NCBIS are subject to change and increase, once approved by the Board of Directors.
